September 10, 2009

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the session and members of Providence Presbyterian Church, I welcome you to the September 22, 2009, stated meeting of Cherokee Presbytery. We are so happy to be hosting the meeting for the first time. We look forward to greeting many of our brothers and sisters who have helped us establish Providence as the first PCUSA church in Paulding County.

Our church has truly had a journey of faith starting from scratch. On March 12, 2000, our organizing minister, Rev. John Hinkle, hosted a Bible study at his home with 12 people attending. The first public worship service of Providence Presbyterian was held in Hiram Elementary School in September, 2000. Worship continued there every Sunday for over a year.

In December, 2001, Providence was given an opportunity to lease space at another church building, which afforded a more conducive facility for worship and ministry.

After a couple of years, this Christ-centered family called Providence realized the leased space would not be adequate for our growing family, and preliminary plans were made to build a new place to call home. With God's providential guidance, a parcel of land on Macland Road in Dallas was identified and acquired in March, 2003.

On September 7, 2003, in front of many friends from Cherokee Presbytery, 100 people who had signed the Book of Commitment stood and agreed to become charter members of the Providence Presbyterian Church.

The groundbreaking ceremony held in October, 2005, was an exciting moment in the life of Providence as we felt our season of waiting was nearing an end. However, we still needed to be patient through many construction delays before moving into our building.

Finally, on Easter Sunday, 2007, our waiting was over as we were able to worship with joy and thanksgiving at the first worship service in our new building. On that day during that service, it seemed as if we had been there all along. After a little over six years, one thing was sure – God led us every step of the way.

In June, 2008, our organizing minister accepted a call out of state. Another step in our journey was to begin. We began Interim Steps and called an Interim Minister, Rev. Alex Stevens. Rev. Stevens graciously guided us through that transition time.

Now we stand at a crossroads in the journey of Providence Presbyterian Church. Our Pastor Nominating Committee is developing plans to call a new installed pastor. This is an exciting time for members of Providence. We look toward the future with enthusiasm and hope. We remember it is all in God's hands, and we look to His Will to guide us as He has always done.

We have truly been blessed and we pray that Providence – in the many meanings of this word – leads believers and non-believers to a strong faith and trust in the Lord through the example and sacrifice of Jesus Christ so that we may go out into the world as witnesses to the greatness of God.

Again, let me welcome you to the presbytery meeting on September 22 at 6:00 p.m. We will be serving a light supper, so be sure to come early enough to eat. Attached are directions to Providence.

Please note that our parking lot is limited, and if it is full when you arrive, you'll be directed to Amberley Senior Community, 890 Macland Road, just 0.16 mile west of our church. Amberley has graciously agreed for overflow parking to be there, and we'll have a shuttle to get you back and forth.

Yours in Christ,

Lynne Byers

Clerk of Session

Overview: The purpose of the Spiritual Development Team is to encourage and support presbyters as they live and proclaim God's Kingdom, enabling the presbytery to more effectively listen to God and one another.

Team Members: Pete Paulsen, Ben Atha, Maxine Edwards, Bill Ford, David Gama, Caron Gruben.

For Information:

The Spiritual Development Team met on August 1, 2009 at the presbytery office. Present were: Caron Gruben, Susan Reggin, Maxine Edwards, and Pete Paulsen. After opening devotions and prayer the team discussed its role in the work of the presbytery. It decided to provide active support to the Lectio Divina program and the use of the labyrinth at the Cherokee Retreat Center. It offered support to the Worship Team in preparing for presbytery worship, the Celebration and Hospitality Team in welcoming new ministers and students under care, and the Mission Team in structuring times of spiritual nurture and development into its mission endeavors. It reviewed the resources available for spiritual development and assigned members to gather a list of spiritual directors in north Georgia and to work with the Resource Center in Atlanta in making available its resources for spiritual development. It talked also about a major event in 2010 featuring a leader such as Eugene Peterson. The team will meet again on October 3.

Ministry Support Team – Don Esa

Overview: The Mission Goal is to provide the infrastructure for the presbytery's mission and ministry so that the members and staff will support, respect, and be accountable to one another. This includes Personnel, Budget and Finance, and Communications.

Team Members: Don Esa, Dayton Adams, Judy Greeson, Lisa Marie Haygood, Maryellen Hittel, Tommy Smithweck.

For Information:

1. The Ministry Support Team met on August 18, 2009, at Providence Presbyterian Church. Present were Don Esa, Dayton Adams, Maryellen Hittel, Dan Boles, Judy Greeson, Lisa-Marie Haygood, and Rebecca Blackwell.
2. The Team reviewed plans for the September 22 presbytery meeting with Providence PC members. The Providence PC Finance Chair met with the Team regarding their request for presbytery to guarantee their re-finance of the current loan on their building. Further review will be done later.
3. A review was made of the loan request from Calhoun First PC. Team members reported on their visit to Calhoun to meet with members of the campaign committee. The church is financially sound and has received many designated gifts toward completion of the building. The MS Team does not believe this puts an additional burden on Presbytery financially, as the church is paying not only their interest, but a portion of the note each month as well. A motion was made and unanimously approved to endorse the additional $270,000 loan application to PILP, which will allow them to get a certificate of occupancy for their educational building.

Recommendation:

1. That First Presbyterian Church of Calhoun be allowed to secure an additional $270,000 loan with the Presbyterian Investment Loan Program (PILP) which will allow them to get a certificate of occupancy for their education building. (This action is part of the omnibus motion.)

2. That Presbytery receive as information and admit to record the Treasurer's year-to-date financial report for Cherokee Presbytery. (Attachment H) (This action is part of the omnibus motion.)

Financial Reports

The moderator presented the financial records as communicated by Kathy Gunter of NEGa Presbytery.

Dan Boles requested that notation of the pledge made by NEGa Presbytery be sent in writing to the presbytery office due to lack of communication between the outgoing treasurer and the incoming treasurer for the presbytery. George Taylor will communicate any necessary information on behalf of the commission.

- It was moved by Katheryn Preston and seconded by Shannon Ball that the financial reports be accepted / received and approved. The motion passed.

Campus Updates

- Jill Tolbert of PCM@Emory gave an update on the difficulty she experienced in the spring semester balancing the pull of personal life and campus ministry, and that she is looking forward to beginning to plan for the upcoming year, the return of former students, and the arrival of new students.
- Lance Crimm gave an overview of upcoming events at Georgia Tech, including upcoming “rush,” time at Montreat, student leadership retreat in Dallas, GA. Edward gave a report on the Asian Student ministry at GT.
- Dan Boles reported that life at KSU has been quiet, but excitement is building about the fall semester. There is a busy welcome week planned, and he is looking forward to the things that fall will bring. He is excited about having a student intern for the coming year.
- Sherri Grove reported excitement about the fall as well, with solid planning in place. Students have been taking roles in leadership using the Nooma series, and that is going well. The big push for the year will be on the incoming students, trying to connect with them early before they over-commit. The ministry was sad to have lost the “dude,” PSF’s mascot due to multiple kidnappings and general demise that resulted from it.
- Katheryn reported on the success of PSC at UGA, and how wonderful it is to have a fulltime campus minister. Orientation events are being planned, and fall looks promising.

- Sharon Riley reported that the development of the ministry at Pres House is still going well. Tutoring events in the spring went well. She will be present at orientation events for both Spelman and Clark Atlanta, and is working on a presence at Morehouse as well.

Old Business

- Gentle reminder to those responsible for getting the by-laws to each presbytery for approval.
- Website work – Dan gave an update on the website development, and requested ONE picture from each campus ministry that could be used for promotion.
- Promotion in Presbyteries and beyond
 - Jill Tolbert shared a flyer that we are requesting be placed in all church bulletins on Sunday, August 16th, Higher Education Sunday. Suggestion to add a note such as: “Connect your favorite college student with a ministry near them!” or “Know a college student in Georgia? Please pass this on!”
 - Conversation was held concerning ways to reach out to both college students and older youths in churches who will soon be college students.
 - Dan revisited the idea of an overnight retreat for incoming freshmen and possibly parents as well prior to arrival on campus. He also suggested a spiritual leadership / retreat for youth ministers as a service to the youth leadership community that would be mutually beneficial and begin to build relationships that would last from year to year. Ann Clay mentioned the possibility of connecting with Columbia Seminary using both Steve Hayner and Rodger Nishioka to promote both youth and campus ministry. Much lively conversation was held regarding the possibilities that lie ahead.
 - Conversation was held regarding the development of a campus ministry at Georgia State. The wheels are in motion, and it looks promising. Catherine Neely, a Lilly intern at Central Presbyterian Church, is beginning to work on that as part of her time there.
 - Trace Haythorn shared ways in which the Fund for Theological Education (FTE) might be beneficial to campus ministry or individual students.
 - A lively discussion was held regarding campus ministry, validated ministry, and respect / recognition of campus ministers in the “grand scheme” of things.
- Manual of Operations – Sue Monk is working on this. Please make a note of things that might need to be added to this so that Sue can include them in the manual of operations.

New Business

- New Treasurer – Still needed.
- A nominating committee is needed for upcoming officer positions. It was decided that the campus ministers would serve as the nominating committee for upcoming PCM of Georgia officers for 2010.
- Issues related to funding new ministries using the statewide development funds were discussed, as well as the funding implications given the recent Northeast Georgia proposal.

A motion was made and seconded that the meeting be adjourned. The motion passed.

The meeting was closed with prayer.

There will be a regular meeting of PCM of Georgia hosted by Berry College on Monday, November 2, 2009 from 10:30 AM – 2:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Jill P. Tolbert, secretary

Cherokee Presbytery New Church Development Commission

Meeting by conference call on July 1, 2009

The meeting was called to order by Moderator Sam Henderson. Participating were Tom Barrentine, Ted Smith, Chuck Holmes, Pastor Choi, and Walter Jones.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Ted Smith.

Background: Chairman Henderson, Gail Neil and Rev. Howard previously met with representatives of an immigrant church currently meeting in Northwest Georgia. They are being served by Rev. Kim P.C.(U.S.A.) minister in good standing in the Chicago area. The group is presently meeting in Ringgold as an independent congregation but has expressed a sincere desire for a relationship within Cherokee Presbytery. Their attendance is typically 60 to 70 on Sunday, with 45 adults, 10 youth, and 14 children. They have worshiped together since April of 2006.

Discussion: The commission noted that two applications would be required, one on the part of the congregation to be formally recognized as an Immigrant Fellowship. Secondly, Pastor Kim would need formal permission to serve within the bounds of Cherokee Presbytery. Pastor Choi noted that the Korean Church Council will, upon NCD approval, recognize the new fellowship within the Korean Church Council and will offer support. Pastor Choi expressed his own personal willingness to be of assistance.

Action Taken: It was moved by Chuck Holmes and seconded by Pastor Choi that the NCD Commission approve the application for Immigrant Fellowship status. The motion was approved unanimously.

Future Meeting: The next meeting was tentatively set at 10:30 on Tuesday, August 11 at the Hamilton Mill Church (Presbytery of Greater Atlanta) in connection with the Tri-Presbytery NCD Commission meeting. A primary reason for the meeting will be to welcome new members and to strengthen ties within the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

Walter Jones

TRI-PRESBYTERY
NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION
MINUTES FOR AUGUST 11, 2009

The Tri-Presbytery NCD Commission met at Hamilton Mill Presbyterian Church. The meeting was called to order at 11:15am.

A description of the facilities and a brief overview of HMPC was given by the pastor, Rev. Tom Bagley.

Moderator Pam Driesell opened the meeting with prayer including a blessing for lunch. Introductions of those present were shared during the meal.

Commission Members present were:

Northeast Georgia Presbytery - Pam Driesell, Jeff Browning, Blaine Walker;

Cherokee Presbytery - Chuck Holmes, Sam Henderson, Bob Sloop, Ted Smith, Byeongho Choi, Walter Jones, Tom Barrentine

Greater Atlanta Presbytery - Joiner Orozco, Carol Smith, Tom Barrow,

Also present:

Bill Harris - CLP, organizing pastor of Locust Grove

Lucas Pina - Pastor of Sixes Presbyterian Church

Rick Wolters - past Chair of Tri-Presbytery NCDC

Marta Pina – Executive Assistant for NCDC

Rebecca Blackwell, Forest Palmer - Advisors

For the benefit of recently elected members of the Commission, the Moderator gave an overview of the sub-committee structure: Communication, Emerging Churches, Immigrant Ministry, Resourcing (fund-raising), and Strategic Planning.

Minutes of the May 6, 2009 meeting were approved as distributed.

REPORTS

NCD PASTORS present were given opportunity to tell the Commission of their work.

FINANCIAL

The Treasurer for the Commission, Greater Atlanta staff member, Carol Johnson has relocated to Utah. Before she left, Carol and Commission Co-Moderator, Joanna Adams, discussed skills necessary and time commitments required, and recommend that an individual be employed for this position. The position would be for four hours per month at $35.00 per hour, recognizing that additional hours may be needed at the beginning. Funds to pay for this position will come out of Reserves. Carol and Joanna recommend that Cindy Metzler be hired to fill this position.

Tom Barrow moved and Bob Sloop seconded that Cindy Metzler be employed as Treasurer for four hours per month at $35.00 per hour. The motion carried.

SEARCH COMMITTEE - New Church Development Director

Bob Sloop reported for the Search Committee seeking a person to staff the Tri-Presbytery NCD Commission. The search committee met with a number of individuals who had shown interest in the position. Given the level of Terms of Call and the uncertainty of the length of the position, surprise was expressed at the number of qualified and interested individuals. The Rev. Ms. Sara A. Hayden, a recent bi-lingual graduate of Columbia Theological Seminary with a wealth of experience, is the committee's choice (she scored a triple "wow" on Sam Henderson's "wow-meter"). Understanding that the Search Committee was empowered to extend a call, offered a one year position to Sara Hayden. She accepted the call on August 10th and will begin work on September 1st. The Search Committee is aware that Sara has several prior commitments during the month of September.

The terms of call totaling $62,530.25, not including Auto Allowance, were reviewed by the Commission. An Auto Allowance of $7,000 had been discussed but is being reviewed to make certain it is adequate. Terms of Call will be presented to the appropriate committee of Greater Atlanta Presbytery once Auto Allowance has been finalized. Resources to fund this position will come from Reserves.

Questions were asked about the level that we have in Reserves. Roughly $200,000 is in the Reserve Fund, though some of these resources are already committed to on-going projects. It was noted that realistically, recognizing these commitments, probably a maximum of 2 years funding is available for this position.

The "Roles Responsibilities and Relationships" for this position discussed at the May 6th meeting of the Commission were shared with Sara, especially the section on Funds Development. A comment, "You're on a burning platform," emphasizing the urgency of fund raising was shared with Sara. Sara understands that this is a one year position, with hopes of it being extended if funding is available.

Morningside Presbyterian Church has graciously offered to provide office space for our new Director.

A motion was made by Tom Barrow, seconded by Rebecca Blackwell, that we accept with enthusiasm the calling of Sara Hayden to be the New Church Development Director. The motion passed unanimously.

Many thanks to the Search Committee Bob Sloop, Joanna Adams, Sam Henderson, Pam Drisell, Tom Barrentine.

In a related matter it was mentioned that Marta Pina has agreed to continue in her position during a brief transition period.

A motion by Sam Henderson, seconded by Walter Jones, that the Tri-Presbytery New Church Development Commission approve that Sara Hayden be reimbursed for business related expenses through an Accountable Reimbursement Plan. The motion carried.

LIAISON'S REPORTS

LOCUST GROVE - Tom Barrow reported that a 10 person organizing committee has been formed. Thanks were expressed to Carol Smith for her diligent work with this group. They have had 3 meetings, once every 3 to 4 weeks. The organizing committee has called Greater Atlanta Presbytery Commissioned Lay Pastor, Bill Harris as organizing pastor. They are looking at potential places to begin having services. They have temporarily taken the name Locust Grove New Church Development and have made contact with neighboring churches (NIMBY). Bill distributed copies of the Vision Statement and the job description for the organizing pastor, both of which have been approved by the organizing committee. Bill has set aggressive bench marks that he desires to meet. Appreciation was expressed by the Commission to the organizing committee for helping us be challenged to look beyond traditional models for pastoral leadership. Rick Wolters offered prayer for LGNCD and it's leadership.

KAIROS - Rick Wolters reported how Kairos is a project that was started by the Emergent Church Committee for people with no interest in the trappings of the traditional church. Those who have participated primarily tend toward middle age to younger-than-older with children. A site has been selected utilizing a portion of Georgia Avenue Church near Grant Park which the Presbytery of Greater

Atlanta has maintained because of two thriving ministries housed there, a foodbank that is critical to the community and a nursery for working mothers. Kairos will begin using the sanctuary and will be "managing partners" for the entire facility. Kairos may become involved in helping the foodbank. The nursery will remain as well. [An aside - the Living Room that was meeting there decided they wanted to be a "fellowship" without a pastor and no affiliation with the Presbyterian Church(USA). Thomas, the leader is facing cancer treatments again.]

SIXES PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH - Despite past troubles, and seemingly being down for the count, Sixes is revived! Lucas Pina reported that the contract for the next phase is signed and all permits are approved. Lucas reported that the $160,000 embezzlement case will probably go to court and the individual charged, if found guilty, will probably go to prison. There is very little expectation of any return of funds lost. In spite of this, the excitement is growing! They will probably start a second worship service beginning in September. Through an unusual turn of events, in a phone call to PC(USA) about the $400,000 loan Sixes was granted, the question was asked, "When are you going to get the rest of the money?" Turns out the original loan amount approved was for $800,000!

NEIGHBORS ABBEY - written report from Tony Bronsink

HAMILTON MILL - Tom Bagley reported earlier.

PROVIDENCE - no report

IMMIGRANT FELLOWSHIPS - Byeongho Choi reported that no action had been taken on his report at the previous meeting that Jesus Hope Church is ready to charter. Forest Palmer responded that this was apparently lost in the transition when Ed Albright retired and left the Commission. Forest will follow up with the Jesus Hope Church.

KOREAN CHURCHES – Rev. Byeongho Choi reported that there are a significant number of Korean newcomers coming from Korea because of the new Korean auto plant in La Grange area, GA. Some have been asking for a Korean Presbyterian Church in that area. Therefore, LaGrange Korean Presbyterian Church was established in LaGrange by the support of Korean Presbyterian Church Council s on April 19, 2009.

Rev. Byeongho Choi mentioned how Korean Churches across the country are growing rapidly and that the language barrier is a very big issue. He mentioned that a non-geographic Korean presbytery was formed several years ago is the fast growing presbytery in PCUSA now. Korean language presbytery is very important for church growth. A Korean language presbytery will be formed pretty soon and Rev. Choi asked the Commission to be supportive of such efforts in the Synod of South Atlantic. Synod of the South Atlantic has approved non-geographic presbyteries in that concept several years ago and many Korean Presbyterian Churches in our region are quite interested and will join the Korean Presbytery. Rev. Choi thought that half of Korean churches may join and the other half may stay in present presbytery.

ZION PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, RINGOLD - just getting started; looking for a place to meet.

LATINO GROUPS - Joiner Orozco reported that though there are 8 Latino groups in the area, there has been only one Latino Church in Greater Atlanta Presbytery. They had been meeting at Shallowford PC. When changes were being made there, the group was told they needed to relocate. Presently they are meeting once a month in small shopping center. The cost is $1500 per month.

EL NAZARENO CHURCH - Joiner Orozco reported that they had moved from College Park to Hapeville and that they expressed a desire to start the chartering process.

VISIONING AND STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE - Sam Henderson led a discussion on the latest version of the Tri-Presbytery New Church Development Mission Statement and Strategic Plan. Specific changes from suggestions made at the previous meeting were discussed.

A question was raised about how confusion might arise over the concept of both TPCNCDC AND constituent presbyteries having purchasing and/or selling authority [see page 4, section C, number 3, item b]

Also, discussion ensued over the need for some form of "Handover Document" that covers all the bases. It was noted that such a document needs to be criteria driven or event driven, rather than date driven.

The next meeting of the Commission will be at 3:00pm on Tuesday November 10th, location to be announced, followed at 5:00pm by the Annual Celebration.

The meeting was closed with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

Blaine Walker

Statement of Journey, Faith and Call

Journey of Faith

God, ever with me, has brought me along on a journey unique yet connected to other travelers. I have discovered that ironically, those times when I presumed most confidently that I was my own planner, initiator and guide were the times when I most wandered and strayed away. It has been said that if you want to make God smile then just share the plans you've made. God has used every wrong turn I've made to bring me closer to the place God has always wanted me to be. Awe, gratitude, humility and peace are appropriate as I consider how God has led and provided for the journey of life and faith I have been traveling.

My earliest memories seem to have been formative for faith and life. I remember at 4 years old climbing a tree with a friend. The tree was next to our house and I was on the roof jumping up and down delighted with the new perspective and the risk. Mom wasn't as delighted. One occasion when I was sick and couldn't see I was comforted by a dream or vision of a man playing a violin near my bed. My family members were so very important. I remember my great-grandparents walking through their orange grove in Florida coming to find us as we played and roamed. When I consider the Genesis story of God walking through the garden in the cool of the day seeking the man and the woman I can just see and hear them. I was loved as a child. This has been vital for faith that empowers me to take and appreciate the risks that are necessary to keep traveling. I know that God is with me, loves me, and seeks me when I wander.

My faith for living has indeed placed me on a journey that has involved moves, calls, grief, a few regrets, but moreover blessings and joys. God has blessed me with a wonderful companion through it all, Sandra, my life's help, partner and love, who is truly God's servant. We have enjoyed our children and grandchildren, the (her) little dogs, our homes, God's creation, work and play. She has been most convincing for my faith that God is loyal, helpful to provide all we need in order to glorify and enjoy the life and divine relationship we're given. I am thankful for many additional friends and companions whom God has granted for company and guidance. Several are even here awaiting me as I take this next step.

Journey is an appropriate description of my inmost being. A friend recently told me a fable that teaches we need to rest in order for our soul to catch up with our body. But I also understand that for me, my body must also get moving to catch up with my soul. Sabbath for me therefore is hiking, cycling, paddling, etc. My soul has been on the move through transitions in vocation from agriculture to parish ministry, community ministry, chaplaincy, and now here to Providence Presbyterian Church and again to Cherokee Presbytery.

I ask God to continue to grant me faith with awe, gratitude, humility and peace for this journey.

Theological Statement

Yahweh, the One, True and Triune God created all there is from nothing at all with the Divine Word. God continually creates, provides, orders, and guides from the beginning to now and beyond the end of this existence as we know it. God calls the whole creation toward the ultimate Divine Purpose.

God's desire is for human beings, the finale of creation, to be the grateful stewards of life and creation fulfilling the image of the One who made us. Humanity has not complied. We all are sinners.

In particular God called a people, Israel, to become witnesses and means whereby the nations of the earth would come to realize God's intended blessing. When this nation strayed God sent the Prophets with the Divine Word to re-create, redeem, restore and reconcile this nation.

God's desire to reconcile Israel and all humanity is shown perfectly in Jesus Christ in whom God's own Being and Word became flesh to dwell among us and demonstrate the true image humanity was created to portray and by Divine Grace will ultimately become. Jesus brought God's love literally and personally into the world. Jesus' unique, complete, and sufficient sacrifice answered our cries for violence with his blood. Jesus bestows a love willing to suffer and die by our hand; forgiving us even as we torture, mock and crucify him.

We meet his humility with our arrogance; his mercy with our judging; his life giving power with our death dealing coercion; his peace with our envious anxiety. Despite and even using our sin God raised Jesus Christ from the dead to convince us of the saving power and love God has for us and to offer the reconciliation we refuse to provide and the salvation we cannot provide on our own.

His coming, obedient life, ministry, humility and loving sacrifice embodies God's initial and ultimate will for humanity. Therefore Jesus calls us to follow him and imitate him, to love God and neighbor: to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God.

Attachment D

Providing everything we need to follow, God's Holy Spirit comes to us and calls the Church to embody the resurrected life of Jesus in the world. Through the Word from Scripture, the Sacraments and the Church's life together God's Spirit is present and active to forgive, encourage and empower us to go and make disciples of all nations.

Holy Spirit interrupts our lives with God's Providence of Grace. The work of Holy Spirit aids the Church to exhibit love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control within the Body of Christ and to share these fruits that the world would know God.

Holy Spirit, knowing no limits of space, time or power therefore is and has been with us always, connecting us with the Triune God and the eternal community of God's Kingdom; even awaiting us beyond the Day of the Lord.

Holy Spirit gives us a dynamic faith always being reformed, growing beyond any and every statement of faith we have or could ever make at one particular point in our journey. Therefore we are first and finally left to praise and trust God who is beyond all and in all.

Sense of Call to Providence Presbyterian Church

We often think, "Is this a 'match'?" when a particular call is being considered. I first noticed a match with the Providence congregation's search at a mere first glance at their Church Information Form. "They're looking for me." I thought. A particular phrase caught my eye, "We're looking for a pastor who can think outside the box." To which my mind replied, "What box? There's a box?"

Harold Parker, former General Presbyter of Cherokee Presbytery, observed my service here as a community organizer and commented that he saw me as a prototype for the pastor of the upcoming postmodern era. I'm not sure whether his observation was regretful or hopeful but – for good or/and ill – others have seen that I am in no pastoral box.

From reading the Church Information Form and from the discussions I have had with the Pastor Nominating Committee I understand that the Providence congregation is poised for action; like a racehorse kicking and bucking for the gate to open, there's the bell... "And they're off".

I am also action oriented. After charging the congregation for a friend's installation service, a member of the commission, Doug Oldenburg, former President of Columbia Theological Seminary asked, "Joe, you don't like 'church' very much, do you? You're like one of my elders who once told me that he was there to serve and carry out the mission while the Church seems given to study and reflect." "Joe", he said, "You're a do-er aren't you?" "Thanks be to God", I smiled.

This is a congregation embarking on a transition period in its life from organization, preparation, and building into different forms of ministry. I thrive in the midst of transition. Like the boy cleaning out the stable, "There's got to be a pony in here someplace."

I am also suited to the key theological issues Providence expresses that basically the Church is gathered to be sent. This rhythm of gathering and sending both enjoys and shares the Gospel experience. I am excited for the opportunity to serve a congregation that sees themselves as becoming a Church Family rather than having a Church Family.

I am encouraged that Providence sees the pastor's major responsibilities are to assist, guide, mentor, train and equip the congregation's leaders to enact their leadership. I believe this serves to correct what the Alban Institute sees as a major source of clergy burnout and reason young adults are not attracted to ministry. Alban cites Rabbi Edwin Friedman, "...the typical Protestant congregation consists of an over-functioning pastor surrounded by infantilized laity." I am grateful that Providence is getting out of that box.

Beyond the expectations any congregation would have for its pastor, Providence is particularly asking its pastor to have a heart and skill for children and family ministry. I have received such a heart from many years as a residential chaplain with dual diagnosed mentally ill/mentally retarded children. This has led me to become a Certified Conscious Discipline® Instructor so as to train teachers, childcare workers and parents in their nurture of children.

Some have noted that this might not be a "smart career move" at "my age". This certainly comes as an interruption to my upcoming 'retirement' plans. What more would I need to convince me that this is a call of God? I am excited that God has given us a shared vision of a beautiful outcome that helps us see through and work through the obstacles ahead.

Cherokee Presbytery Minimum Terms of Call for Ministers, January 2010

|--------------------------|--|-----------------|
| Cash Compensation | Base Annual Salary | $24,500 |
| | Housing Allowance | 11,350 |
| | Utilities | 3,500 |
| | Total Minimum Cash Compensation | $39,350 |

The above figures represent the effective salary used in figuring member dues to the Board of Pensions. The following is a quote from the Benefits and Administration Handbook for Churches and Employing Organizations of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.):

Effective salary includes any compensation received during a Plan year by a Plan member from a church or employing organization, including – but not limited to – any sums paid for housing allowance (including utilities and furnishings), deferred compensation (funded or unfunded) credited to a Member by an employing organization during a Plan year, bonuses, lump sum allowances, etc.

Effective salary does not include amounts received for reimbursement of professional expenses through an accountable reimbursement plan or social security amounts up to fifty percent (50%) of a minister's Self-Employment Contribution Act obligations.

For Minister Members only, the housing allowance is calculated as follows: If a manse is provided, the amount shall be at least thirty percent (30%) of all other compensation described above. If no manse is provided, the amount shall be the actual housing allowance.

As a general rule, Effective Salary only relates to sums received from the church or employing organization.

Deferred Compensation refers to salary reduction agreements for additional retirement savings programs. Such reductions ARE part of the minister's Effective Salary for pension purposes, but MAY NOT be reportable on the minister's Form 1040 as taxable income. Of course, the minister and employing organization should seek the advice of a qualified tax advisor.

Benefits

|---|----------|
| Equivalent of ½ self-employment tax (effective salary X .0765) | $ 3,010 |
| (This is reported as taxable income on the minister's W-2, thus raising the gross salary.) | |
| Pension/Medical (effective salary X.315) (X or current) | $12,395 |

The Book of Order requires that every installed pastor or associate pastor be enrolled in the Benefits Plan of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) through the Board of Pensions. The Plan includes Retirement Pension, Major Medical Benefits for the minister and family, Disability and Death Benefits. The dues, paid by the calling church, are 31.5% of the Effective Salary.

|------------------------------|--------------------------------|---------|
| Professional Expenses | Automobile Expense | $3,500 |
| | Continuing Education and Books | 800 |

1. A church may provide an automobile for the minister's use with an allowance for maintenance and operation of the vehicle. As an alternative, the church may provide a travel expense fund of at least $3,500 paid at the standard mileage rate ($.55 per mile) (or current) for documented professional travel. If the church reimburses the minister for actual expenses incurred, there are no tax implications for the minister. If the church pays travel allowance to the minister on a regular basis, the money must be reported as taxable income and the minister must report his/her mileage to the IRS.

2. Ministers need both regular rest and opportunities to continue growing professionally to serve the growing needs of the congregation. For this reason, the pastor should be allowed four (4) weeks of paid vacation annually and two (2) weeks annually for continuing education and books with a minimum of $800 to help offset the educational costs.

3. Churches are responsible for moving expenses for the minister's household and professional items to the field of each new call. A calling church may, in consultation with the minister, place financial limits on moving expenses.

Meeting Minutes from July 14, 2009

I. Call to Order:

The meeting was called to order at approximately 6:50pm with a prayer. A quorum was not present.

II. Approval of the Minutes from the last meeting:

Minutes from the June 16, 2009 meeting were distributed via email and approved electronically as submitted.

III. Old Business:

1. Election of officers cannot take place this evening since a quorum was not present. The Board needs to elect officers at the September meeting since this was not done at the July or August meetings as originally planned.
2. The A/C unit at the Lodge was replaced. The Board approved the action via email with one Board member dissenting.
 - a. Unfortunately, the other HVAC unit in the Lodge has died, and has the same problem as the last one. One unit is performing okay for now.
 - b. A vote on approving the second HVAC unit replacement will be tabled until next meeting.
3. Anita said that the two AED units that are needed will cost approximately $700 or less. There is not a hurry to have them installed, but we will probably need them next summer.
4. Kelly went over the Financials and the Summer Program Report.
 - a. CRC is running under budget for the summer by approximately 20 percent.
 - b. CRC is still waiting on a few credit card payments for campers.
 - c. CRC is rented for almost every weekend from now through October.
 - d. Next year, culture camp will be a "rental", and the program will be separate from the standard summer program. They will have the opportunity to contract with the summer staff to provide staff for culture camp under a separate contract.

Attachment G

- e. Community camp – some money is left for next year, which needs to be used for that purpose.
 - f. Kelly will move scholarship funds and place into the income for summer camp fees now that the summer is over. Right now, the scholarships are funded by matching grants from churches and online picture sales (Thriviva).
 - g. Watkins Fund – needs to be invested as was intended.
 - h. Bottom line – CRC is still looking at a $30,000 shortfall to be made up by the end of the year.
 - i. The Presbytery may be able to give $25,000 to $35,000 to the CRC.
 - j. Nate and Kelly need to speak with Dalton Pres. Dalton may only want to give to the CRC (rather than the Presbytery), and those funds would need to be in a designated fund for the CRC to ensure they are used for the intended purpose.
5. Corrin passed around the donations giving procedure, and the Board made a few comments.
- a. Use wording like “remaining balance” rather than “amount due”.
 - b. Thank you notes and tracking has begun.
 - c. Reminders should be sent out quarterly whether or not the pledge payment has been made.
 - d. The Board signed Thank you notes during the meeting.
6. Becky Jordan provided the CRC’s camp director job description via email.
- a. The job description was very generalized.
 - b. A new description is needed for operating camp/site management.
 - c. Kelly would like to contract out some of the camp operations and site management duties rather than hire a new person (see below in New Business regarding Andy Hendrix’s resignation).
 - d. Kelly will email a job description that he has as well as the ACA recommended job description.

IV. New Business

1. Andy Hendrix submitted his resignation today to Kelly via email and will be submitting a formal letter to Jon and Kelly by Thursday. Kelly stated that Andy has left on good terms and that he is looking forward to his future.
2. Nate noted that members of the Board need to pledge a donation if they have not already.
3. Nate noted that the CRC Board needs to contact churches with a plan to solicit donations and a calendar for tracking. The Board needs to ask the churches to only designate some funds to the CRC, not increase their budget.

4. Heather mentioned that the Trout Unlimited Chili Cook-off in Rome, GA was successful a few years ago, and we may want to do this again to generate interest in the community.
5. Anita said that a golf cart has been pledged for camp from the Presbytery Women's group. To date, they have raised $650 of the $2,200 needed. Donations for this purpose can be made to Cherokee Presbytery with a note of "CRC Golf Cart".
 - a. Heather will check to see if her Aunt's golf cart has already been sold.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 8:40 pm.

Agenda items for next board meeting:

- Board officer elections.
- Job descriptions for Kelly
- Discuss possibility of contracting for camp maintenance and operations rather than hiring someone to fill Andy's position right away.
- HVAC Unit #2
- Review updated procedures for donations
- Discuss ways the Friends of CRC group can participate/help in outreach
- Committees – need descriptions of these. We need to look in the previous work that was completed during the CRC Board's development as this was completed already.
- Frequency of meetings.

Action Items:

1. Corrin will revise the procedures for donations.
2. Kelly will email his job description and the recommended one from the ACA.
3. Heather will send out a reminder one week in advance of the next meeting, and include Betty Cheek (bettycheek1@bellsouth.net) so she can get it on the Cherokee Chat newsletter. Note: This was not done because the meeting date was changed from Sept. 8 to Sept. 1.
4. Kelly will work to rename some of the items in the budget and move funds as discussed during the meeting (ex. move scholarship money into the summer camp fees line).
5. Heather will check on her Aunt's golf cart.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Heather Perrin.
